Arkansas
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department released Monday a list of 112 men, including one Arkansan, who have been killed in action in Vietnam.
The Arkansan was identified
as Marine 1st Lt. Richard J.
Glenn, husband of Mrs. Patricia
S. G. Glenn, of North Little Rock.
The Defense Department also notified Mrs. Laverne Mitchell of Bald Knob Monday that her son, Marine Pfc. Larry Mitchell, had been killed in action in Vietnam.

Suggests Outsiders
Be Called in

By NEIL GILBRIDE
AP Labor Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) —
AFL-CIO President George
Meany says voluntary arbitration by "impartial" outsiders
might be the answer to the nation's rising rash of strikes by public workers ranging from garbage men to teachers.
State laws forbidding strikes,
under which some union leaders have gone to jail, aren't the answer, said the chief of the 14-million member labor federation.
"I think there is a basic right
of an individual to quit his job if he doesn't like the conditions
under which he works and I don't think he should lose that right because he happens to be a civil service worker," Meany told newsmen Monday.
"On the other hand, there is a basic right of the general public to expect service from these workers," Meany said.
"I think it might be that you could set up some sort of a system of voluntary arbitration by which the unions would agree that their conditions would be set up, not by some politician holding a public office, but by some system of impartial people," Meany said.
Union organizing of public workers has been one of the most rapid areas of the labor movement's growth in recent years and has been marked by strikes of policemen, firemen,
teachers, welfare workers, garbage collectors and many other-ers.

Motion to Revive Davis
Bill Fails

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas House today defeated
a motion to bring "Lynn Davis" bill out of the State Agencies Committee.
Rep. Leon Holsted of North Little Rock made the motion,
saying he believed the bill,
which would allow the immediate reappointment of Davis
as State Police director, could be approved by the General Assembly before final adjournment of the special session.
The bill, drafted by several members of the Pulaski County delegation, would have required
the director to be a resident but not a qualified elector. House Bill 49, which has been passed by both houses, requires the director to be a qualified elector.
Rep. James Linder of West
Helena, arguing against the motion, said it was "ridiculous" to call the bill out of committee
at this late hour because it would be impossible to pass it.
"There's no point in bringing it up," Linder said. "Let's leave it in State Agencies where it belongs." Linder is chairman of the committee.

Strike Closes Schools in Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) —
A statewide walkout by Florida
public school teachers that shut
more than half a million pupils
out of class Monday went into its second day today. Spoke-men said 9,000 more teachers will join the 26,000 who have quit their jobs.
A hearing was set this afternoon before Circuit Judge Ben
C. Willis on the state's request for a permanent injunction to end the walkout. The Florida Education Association holds
that in resigning their jobs,
teachers are not violating an an-tistrike law and cannot be ordered to work.
Several local school boards
went into county courts seeking injunctions to halt what they termed illegal strikes in their counties.
The association's dispute with the state is over the public education program. The association says the state has not provided enough money.
School officials in the state's 67 counties said 26,005 teachers
— out of 60,844 — were off the job Monday.
All classes were canceled in 21 counties. Other boards operated sporadically, some closing high schools while keeping elementary schools open as babysitting facilities. In Daytona Beach, sixth grade girls were assigned to care for first and second graders.
There are 1,300,000 pupils in the state's 1,800 schools. In some schools which operated normally, officials said, attendance fell off.
School Supt. Floyd Christian
and Wade Hopping, an aide to Gov. Claude Kirk, said it was too early to tell if the teachers'
walkout would be effective.
In a dozen rural counties, notably in the Florida panhandle,
teachers almost unanimously
rejected the call by the association to leave their jobs. In other areas 60 to 80 per cent of the teachers were off the job.
In the Miami area, the Dade County school system — largest in the state with 217,906 pupils —
was closed. Of Dade's 9,430 teachers, 6,204 were staying away from school.
The association had rejected a public education program
passed last Friday by a special session of the legislature just before adjournment.
That bill, still awaiting signature or veto by Kirk, provided $254.5 million. But the association said only $116 million of that was new money for education with the rest providing tax relief to property owners.
The association wants a bill providing $297 million in school
money, not including construction. The association says teachers will not return until such a law is passed.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — House
Speaker Sterling R. Cockrill Jr.
of Little Rock told his fellow representatives Monday that they have the opportunity to retain a high degree of respectability by attempting to persuade the Senate to approve a 1969
timetable for a constitutional convention bill.
Cockrill said that past experience indicated that voting
quickly on any proposed constitutional document is for the better and predicted that adoption of the 1969 timetable would ensure quick passage of the bill.
"The House of Representatives has an opportunity to stand firm and retain a high degree of respectability, together with an improved image that reflects public favor and confidence," Cockrill said. "It is an experience that should stir the pride of all House members."

Wage Bill Is Signed Into Law by WR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The
state's first minimum wage bill,
which goes into effect Jan. 1,
was signed into law Monday by
Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.
The measure sets a minimum wage of $1 per hour on Jan. 1, 1969 with increases to $1.20 an hour by Jan. 1, 1971. All businesses with five or more employees are covered by the bill.
Rockefeller had two similar minimum wage proposals from which to choose and he selected the administration measure.

Compromise Prison Bill
Is Passed

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Both houses of the Arkansas General Assembly passed a compromise prison reform measure Monday
and they must come to grips with differing constitutional convention bills if they hope to end
a special session today.
There is a general feeling that adjournment can come on the 12th day of the first of two special sessions planned by Gov.
Winthrop Rockefeller. Both houses convened at 10 a.m.
The administration's bill setting up the procedure for a constitutional convention passed virtually as it was introduced in the House while the Senate attached some amendments.
The major differences are in apportionment — the House bill
based on the 1967 House apportionment and the Senate on the 1965 apportionment — and in the time a document would be submitted to the electorate for approval — a 1969 special election
is the House's wish and the 1970 general election is the Senate's.
The Senate Monday passed
the bill creating a Department of Corrections unamended while the House attached amendments striking the parole eligibility section and assuring that a diagnostic center be constructed on present prison property at some time in the future.
Meanwhile Sen. Guy Jones of Conway virtually killed the administration's "Lynn Davis" bill
in the Senate when he pushed through a motion to dispose of all business in the call before taking up the Davis bill.
This, said opponents of the motion, sounded the death knell
for the bill since passage by the Senate would require the House to convene an extra day
just to act on it.
In other action Monday, the House defeated a bill establishing salaries for the commissioner of corrections and two secretaries. The main feature opposed in the bill was a section providing that money derived from the sale of manufactured goods at the prison go into a cash fund spent under the direction of the Board of Corrections.

There could be a 90-day difference in when the Department of Corrections is established.
The Senate passed the emergency clause on its bill but the House failed to pass its emergency clause, meaning if the House measure is the one eventually passed and signed into law, the department could not be set up until 90 days after final adjournment of the special session.
Several senators objected to various sections of the bill but voted for it anyway.
Sen. Dan Sprick of Little Rock said the measure "will come back to haunt not only you who vote for it but the administration as well."
"We're eloping with a wife
we know nothing about and we are marrying a wife we might not be able to divorce," said
Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett as he spoke against the bill.
Jones said he was not yielding to pressure from the governor's office but that he had to vote for the bill.
He said there is a "newspaper nut at the penitentiary
and a publicly paranoid in charge of the State Police, and if Win (Rockefeller) is going to get his name in the paper, the (Arkansas) Gazette will have to put out a third edition."
The only House member

speaking against the bill was Rep. Albert Hayes of Stuttgart who said, "The women in our community are afraid to stay at home at night."
He said daughters in three families in his county had been raped and that nothing had been done about it.
"This bill invites more of it
by jaxily," Hayes said.
He especially opposed a work release section which would permit inmates to work outside the prison and draw a salary.
"If we're gonna coddle the prisoners down at this farm and tax the people for it, it's time
for us to stand up and be counted," Hayes said.

Senate Spells
Out the Poll
Closing Law

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Senate today passed
an act to the House a bill which spells out who can vote
at the time the polls close.
The bill specifies that all persons in line at the time the polls
close at 7:30 p.m. shall be allowed to vote. Previous law failed to spell out that those in line should be permitted to vote.
The bill, which passed by a vote of 25-0, kept the polling
times as they are at present —
8 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Pictures All Policemen
on Tight Rope

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty.
Gen. Ramsey Clark pictured the policeman today as "a man on a tight rope" who can cause a riot
by overacting or permit one by underacting.
"The policeman is the most important man in the United States today," Clark said. "It is not because he caused, or is responsible for the conditions that exist, but because, like the mountain, he is there."
"Performance of the police during this and the next several years will vitally affect the course of this nation, for better or for worse, for decades to come," he added.
Clark said, "Riots are as old as mankind. They are the an-thesis of humaneness, intelligence, faith and charity which are the hope of civilization."
But he said people fear riots
most of all "because our lives
have been more comfortable
than most. Our fear exaggerates what we have experienced and can anticipate."

McNamara's appearance before the Foreign Relations Com-

two naval engagements in the gulf off North Vietnam in August 1964 involving U.S. destroyers and enemy torpedo boats.
The incident led to near-unanimous approval of a resolution
President Johnson has cited frequently as evidence of congress-sional support for his war policies.
Fulbright was floor manager
for the resolution in the Senate.
But he has since become a leading war critic.
The first development in Tonkin Gulf was on Aug. 2, 1964,
when the USS Maddox clashed
with three torpedo boats.
On Aug. 4, the Maddox and USS C. Turner Joy were on patrol in the same area and another attack was reported.
The Foreign Relations Committee staff report has not been made public but there have been hints of its contents.
Fulbright has said the Maddox was on a spying mission
when the first incident occurred. Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., has cited the possibility the enemy torpedo boats may have connected the Maddox with a South Vietnamese raid on an island in the area a few days previously.
The official report said the Maddox was on a routine patrol
in international waters and gave no provocation.
Questions also were raised in
the committee staff's inquiry, it has been reported, as to whether the first shots fired by the Maddox were a warning, as officially reported, or were aimed at the enemy. No hits were made in the first salvo.

Penelope Is Latest Model Rage

By DEE WEDEMEYER
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Gone are the harshly lined eyes and the minute minis. There's a new Penelope Tree.

Not that the old Penelope was in need of revamping. The 18-year-old model just decided the dark painted lines accenting the gaunt, sad-eyed look which made her famous were too harsh. They've been replaced with soft.

Just back from three weeks in Paris where she worked with the English model, Twiggy, Penelope curled her long bare legs up under calf-length dress and talked about her seven-month modeling career.

"I always thought modeling was a sort of stupid job— which it is. You're not doing anything for anybody, it's just standing there. I'm not particularly proud," she said. "The photographer molds you. All you can hope to accomplish is some poetic movement."

"The secret is in acting out the clothes. For example, you act like you are a barmaid in Louisiana. It brings intensity to your expression. Sometimes I pretend I'm a suburban housewife who has just gone to New York to the theater or an Indian off a reservation who is going to Europe," she explained, tossing her long brown hair. "I just say to myself, I am an Indian off the reservation."

Actually, Penelope is a freshman off the campus of Sarah Lawrence College, which she left in January for a year to model.

Her mother was an ambassador to the United Nations, her half-sister was a Vietnam correspondent, her uncle was governor of Massachusetts, her grandfather an Episcopal bishop. And her grandmother, she declares with brown eyes dancing, "is the one who went to jail." Her grandmother was active in the civil rights movement.

As if the glamorous life she lives with her parents, the Ronald Trees, in a chic New York townhouse were not enough, she now belongs to her own clique of celebrities.

She shops in London at the Beatles-backed boutique, Apple, or in New York's Paraphernalia, and she finds the $90 an hour she earns as a model goes almost as quickly as it comes.

Her name crops up in gossip columns as if she attends chic soirées every night of the week. Actually she frequents museums and movies mostly and has only been to one opening night. Her favorite clothes are a fox tail belt and a pair of jeans—not worn together.

Earliest known record of a shorthand system is that developed about 160 B.C. by Marcus Tullius Tiro, secretary to Cicero.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Star Trek" fans, who have been writing letters and picketing network headquarters to keep the show from being canceled, may now relax. The program has definitely been included in NBC's 1968-69 schedule and, providing sponsors can be found, will be among the survivors next September.

The three networks are deep in plans for next season, going through the annual February rite called "locking in" their schedules.

But an announced program can be a stalking horse, set into position to lure a rival network to program against it, at which point it is pulled out and another show pencilled in. Sometimes, too, a "locked in" program is abruptly locked out when there proves to be little sponsor interest.

While the sponsors are interested in putting their money on shows likely to win the Nielsen rating races seven or more months hence, the viewers are more interested in the fate of favorite programs at the end of this season.

CBS has officially dropped the ax on four: "Lost in Space," "Good Morning World," "He and She" and "Clarron Strip."

NBC is still working on its schedule, but "Run for Your Life" and the "Danny Thomas Show" are among the casualties and so are, unless there is a last-minute reprieve, "The Monkees" and "I Dream of Jeanie." "Tarzan" and "I Spy" are two other series that may not survive the wedding.

ABC, which trailed the other two networks all season in the ratings but improved its position with midseason replacements, is still making its decisions. "Off to See the Wizard" is definitely dead, and among other likely candidates for oblivion are "Cowboy in Africa," "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," "Rat Patrol," "Felon Squad" and "The Invaders." "The Second Hundred Years" still has a chance to survive if its ratings improve when it replaces "Batman" at the head of ABC's Thursday night schedule.

It is probable that "The Avengers" will continue as a regular series. "It Takes a Thief" and "Operation: Enter-

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED FOR IT, care of Helen Help US! This newspaper.

THE DANGEROUS AGE

Dear Helen: I always write ya, but you never put my letter in the paper. Oh, well.

Helen, how old should we be to do this fad called "making (cq) out." All my friends, 12 and 13, do it. It's mostly just kissing I mean really, we can't get in any trouble, can we?

One more question. Why don't you think we should go steady at our ages? I think it's cool—SPANKY

Dear Spanky: When you call it a fad, and you can't even spell it, then you're too young for "making" out. And when you combine it with going steady at ages 12 and 13—yes, honey, you CAN get into trouble! You'd be surprised the number of 14-year-olds who write me they're "pragmet" (cq)—also before they've learned how to spell the word.—H.

Dear Helen: I have been going steady with this boy for six months and we love each other very much. But he likes to go on drinking spells quite often, and lately, when he does, he takes his anger out on me. Since he's four times as strong, I get black and blue marks. How can I save him from himself?—GETTING SCARED

Dear Scared: Save yourself! "Inebriation" are both midseason additions likely to be around in September.

Andy Griffith will retire from CBS in "Mayberry R.F.D." with Ken Berry taking over the lead. Berry, last seen in "F Troop" will be introduced into the Griffith show on March 11 for four episodes, and Andy will help out next season by appearing in several of the new shows.

Motion pictures will continue to dominate the television screen. NBC will add a third movie night to its schedule, bringing the total up to seven two-hour film broadcasts weekly in prime time.

Nominees for Oscars Are Listed

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," a film about an interracial romance, tied with "Bonnie and Clyde," a story of crime in the 1930s, with 10 nominations each for the 40th Academy Awards.

A child's fantasy tale, "Doctor Doolittle," ranked next with nine. The nominees, announced Monday, included the late Spencer Tracy.

"Doctor Doolittle," "Bonnie and Clyde," "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," "The Graduate" and "In the Heat of the Night" were named contenders for the best picture award.

Tracy was nominated for the ninth time as best actor for his performance in "Coming to Dinner." Warren Beatty for his role as Clyde, Dustin Hoffman in "The Graduate," Paul Newman as "Cool Hand Luke" and Rod Steiger for "In the Heat of the Night."

Tracy's nomination was a record for an actor.

His roles in "Captains Courageous" in 1937 and "Boys' Town" in 1938 brought him Academy Awards. Only James Dean has been nominated posthumously before.

No Oscar for best actor or actress has ever been awarded posthumously and none awarded to an actor three times.

Wildcats Stay Ahead of Vandy

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was the eve of postseason college basketball tournament selections and the St. Bonaventure Brown Indians and the Kentucky Wildcats went to bed with visions of bids dancing in their heads after rousing victories.

However, only the Bonnies could expect the real thing today. The Wildcats must play good a while longer.

St. Bonaventure, as an independent, seemed certain of bids from both the NIT and NCAA after turning loose Bill Butler and Bob Lanier for a 97-84 victory over visiting Creighton Monday night, protecting its unbeaten record and No. 4 ranking.

Kentucky, on the other hand, will have to do even better than its impressive 106-87 breeze past tough Georgia away from home before earning an NCAA bid which automatically goes to the winner of the Southeastern Conference.

The Wildcats, ranked fifth, raised their conference record to 12-3 and kept them ahead of Vanderbilt, No. 9, which ran its SEC record to 10-4 by crushing Alabama 89-74 at Tuscaloosa. Idle Tennessee is 9-4.

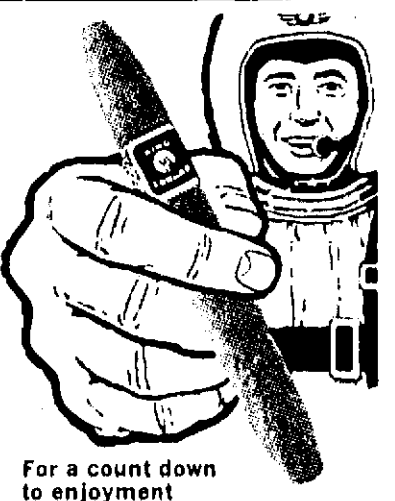

Marquette, No. 10, also closed in on a bid by celebrating its entry into the Top Ten with a 75-65 triumph at South Dakota. Another team with postseason ideas, Chicago Loyola, raced to an 83-74 decision over visiting Bowling Green for a 14-6 record.

Long Island U., the nation's top-ranked small college team rumored hopeful of a major college tournament bid, kept its record unblemished by coming away from Bridgeport with a 68-52 victory, its 19th. Runner-up Kentucky Wesleyan brushed aside host Arkansas State 73-62.

Butler, a 6-foot-3 senior, and Lanier, 6-11 sophomore, sparked St. Bonaventure's 19th success with 29 and 27 points, respectively. The Bonnies took a 9-2 lead and Creighton, 8-13, never caught up.

Kentucky put its early problems in the hands of lanky Don Issel, a 6-8 sophomore who scored 31 points and assured the Wildcats of at least a tie for the SEC title.

The Wildcats trailed by nine points in the first half and it wasn't until Issel's corner shot with 13 minutes left that they

Hope Girls Prepare for State Meet

by RALPH HOUTON
Star Sports Writer

Apprehensive over their chances but aware of their ability, the Hope Lady Cats are gathering up forces for the Napoleonic battles of state tournament, after tripping on the back stretch against Ashdown last weekend.

That long-awaited State Class A Senior Girls Tournament for the 1967-68 season is upon us, to be transpired Wednesday through Saturday in Prescott. And, true to form, the Hope Lady Cats have won a spot in the year's climactic meet. By the draw of the bracket the Lady Cats are sixteenth out of sixteen teams, but this might be a blessing in disguise.

If Hope should go all the way, they will have to play the last game every night. The Lady Cats take on Beebe, champs of District 3-A, tomorrow night at 9:10 p.m. With Ashdown in the top-seeded position, many are expecting a Hope-Ashdown rematch in the state championship game Saturday night.

In that case the Lady Cats would definitely have the psychological advantage going for them, with the 54-51 double overtime loss to the Pantherettes in the district finals presently taking the upper hand in the minds of the Lady Cats.

The Hope girls will have to play as though their lives were at stake in order to win, and they should be mentally and physically prepared to do so. This week marks the end of the whole long season, and the Lady Cats' preparation of a 22-5 record is really something.

Remember that three of those five losses came to Bradley, and the other two were brought about by Ashdown. So Hope's losses, as well as Ashdown's, were all inflicted by another member of the state's Big Three: Hope Lady Cats, Ashdown Pantherettes, and the Bradley Bearettes. And of course, Bradley's present 26-1 record looks mighty pretty, since the Lady Cats were the team to mar that long winning streak.

NYAC Protests Action of the Russians
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Athletic Club's boycotted track meet was run with nothing worse happening than a pair of broken glasses, but the recriminations are still in evidence.

The NYAC, which kept silent while the boycott was raging, came out of its shell Monday. Negroes had boycotted the meet in protest against the club's membership policy, which, they said, discriminates against Negroes and Jews.

Ray Lump, director of the meet which took place last Friday at the new Madison Square Garden, criticized the Amateur Athletic Union for allowing a contingent of seven Russians to pull out of the meet.

Originally, the Russians said they were afraid of being injured while crossing the picket line, but over the weekend they said they had pulled out two weeks earlier because they didn't want to travel from the West Coast, where they were training, to New York.

"We are not happy with the action that lets the Russians compete in the AAU meet this weekend in Oakland after being permitted to pull out of our meet, which I thought was a form of propaganda," Lump said.

He said the NYAC might reduce its contingent in the AAU championships to a token entry. Eight individuals and a relay team is now entered.

The boycott held Negro competitors down to a minimum—only nine competed—though James Dennis of the Air Force was going to be in the sprints before a picketer broke his glasses, forcing him out. Lump said the NYAC would pay for Dennis' glasses.

Complaints also came from coaches, runners and spectators that the new garden was a poor place for track. Runners said the narrow turns slowed them down. Fans said whole sections of the track were hidden from view.

The word desert does not specifically denote a hot region.

Houston Still at Top of Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Houston Cougars, still a solid leader in The Associated Press' major-college basketball poll, should have no trouble extending their unbeaten streak this week.

The Cougars, 23-0, take on two small-college teams. They meet the University of Texas at Arlington on Thursday and Valparaiso Saturday. Texas at Arlington has won only three of 21 games while Valparaiso has a 10-11 record.

Houston received 26 first-place votes and 332 points in the latest poll based on games through last Saturday. In the voting by a national panel of 34 sports writers and broadcasters, points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, etc.

UCLA, 20-1, held second place. The Bruins had the eight other votes for the top position and 314 points.

Houston beat Miami, Fla., and Air Force while UCLA defeated Oregon State and Oregon last week.

North Carolina, 20-1, remained in the No. 3 spot followed by unbeaten St. Bonaventure. The Bonnies scored their 18th triumph last week, 81-71 over Seton Hall in overtime.

Kentucky, winner over Tennessee and Mississippi State, climbed three positions to fifth. Columbia held sixth place followed by New Mexico, Duke, Vanderbilt and Marquette.

New Mexico slipped two notches to seventh after losing to Utah. Duke advanced from 10th to eighth and Vanderbilt remained in ninth position.

The Marquette Warriors, 18-3, replaced Tennessee in the rankings in taking over 10th place. The Volunteers, beaten by Kentucky and Vanderbilt last week, have a 15-5 mark. They were seventh a week ago.

The Top Ten with first place votes in parentheses and total points through games of Feb. 17:

1. Houston (26)	332
2 UCLA (8)	314
3. North Carolina	266
4. St. Bonaventure	232
5. Kentucky	149
6. Columbia	129
7. New Mexico	123
8. Duke	102
9. Vanderbilt	95
10 Marquette	25

OFF-SEASON RELAXATION?—Willie Davis (left), Green Bay's All-Pro defensive end, is having his own private skull session these days at the University of Chicago library. He will receive his master's degree in business administration in June. New Minnesota Viking quarterback Gary Cuozzo (right) risks getting a finger of his passing hand in a patient's mouth. He's a dental student at the University of Tennessee Medical School.

Hirsch and Trippi in Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — Elroy "Crazy Legs" Hirsch and Charlie Trippi, who ran to glory in the open field, and Marion Motley, who made it with power, are among the seven newest members of professional football's Hall of Fame.

Also named Monday were Cliff Battles, Wayne Miller, Art Donovan and Alex Wojciechowski.

A board comprised of 15 sports writers and broadcasters from National Football League cities selected the seven to join 47 other grid greats in the Hall at Canton, Ohio.

They will be inducted formally at ceremonies in Canton sometime next summer.

Hirsch, now assistant to President Dan Reeves of the Los Angeles Rams, starred at halfback for Wisconsin and Michigan, and, then as an end, led the NFL in scoring and pass reception.

Kidd to Try for Comeback

Toronto (AP) — Bruce Kidd, a teen-age track distance star in the early 1960s who has been retired for four years, said today he will attempt a comeback March 1 in the mile run in the Telegram-Maple Leaf Indoor Games.

tions with the Rams in 1951. He had pro career total of 6,299 yards and 53 touchdowns with the old Chicago Rockets and the Rams.

Trippi rode high as a pro as a member of the Dream Backfield of the Chicago Cardinals, now St. Louis. He starred in college as a halfback-quarterback for Georgia.

Motley came out of the University of Nevada to star at fullback for Paul Brown's teams at Cleveland. He finished his career at Pittsburgh in 1955.

Battles, who played at West Virginia Wesleyan, gained fame as a slashing halfback for the Boston Braves, Boston Redskins and Washington Redskins.

Miller, who caught the winning pass for Notre Dame in the memorable 1935 game with Ohio State, was a teammate of Battles on the Washington Redskins. He also played end for the Boston Redskins.

Donovan played defensive tackle for the New York Yanks and the Dallas Texans, but it was with the Baltimore Colts that he was at his peak.

Football Leagues in Closed Meet

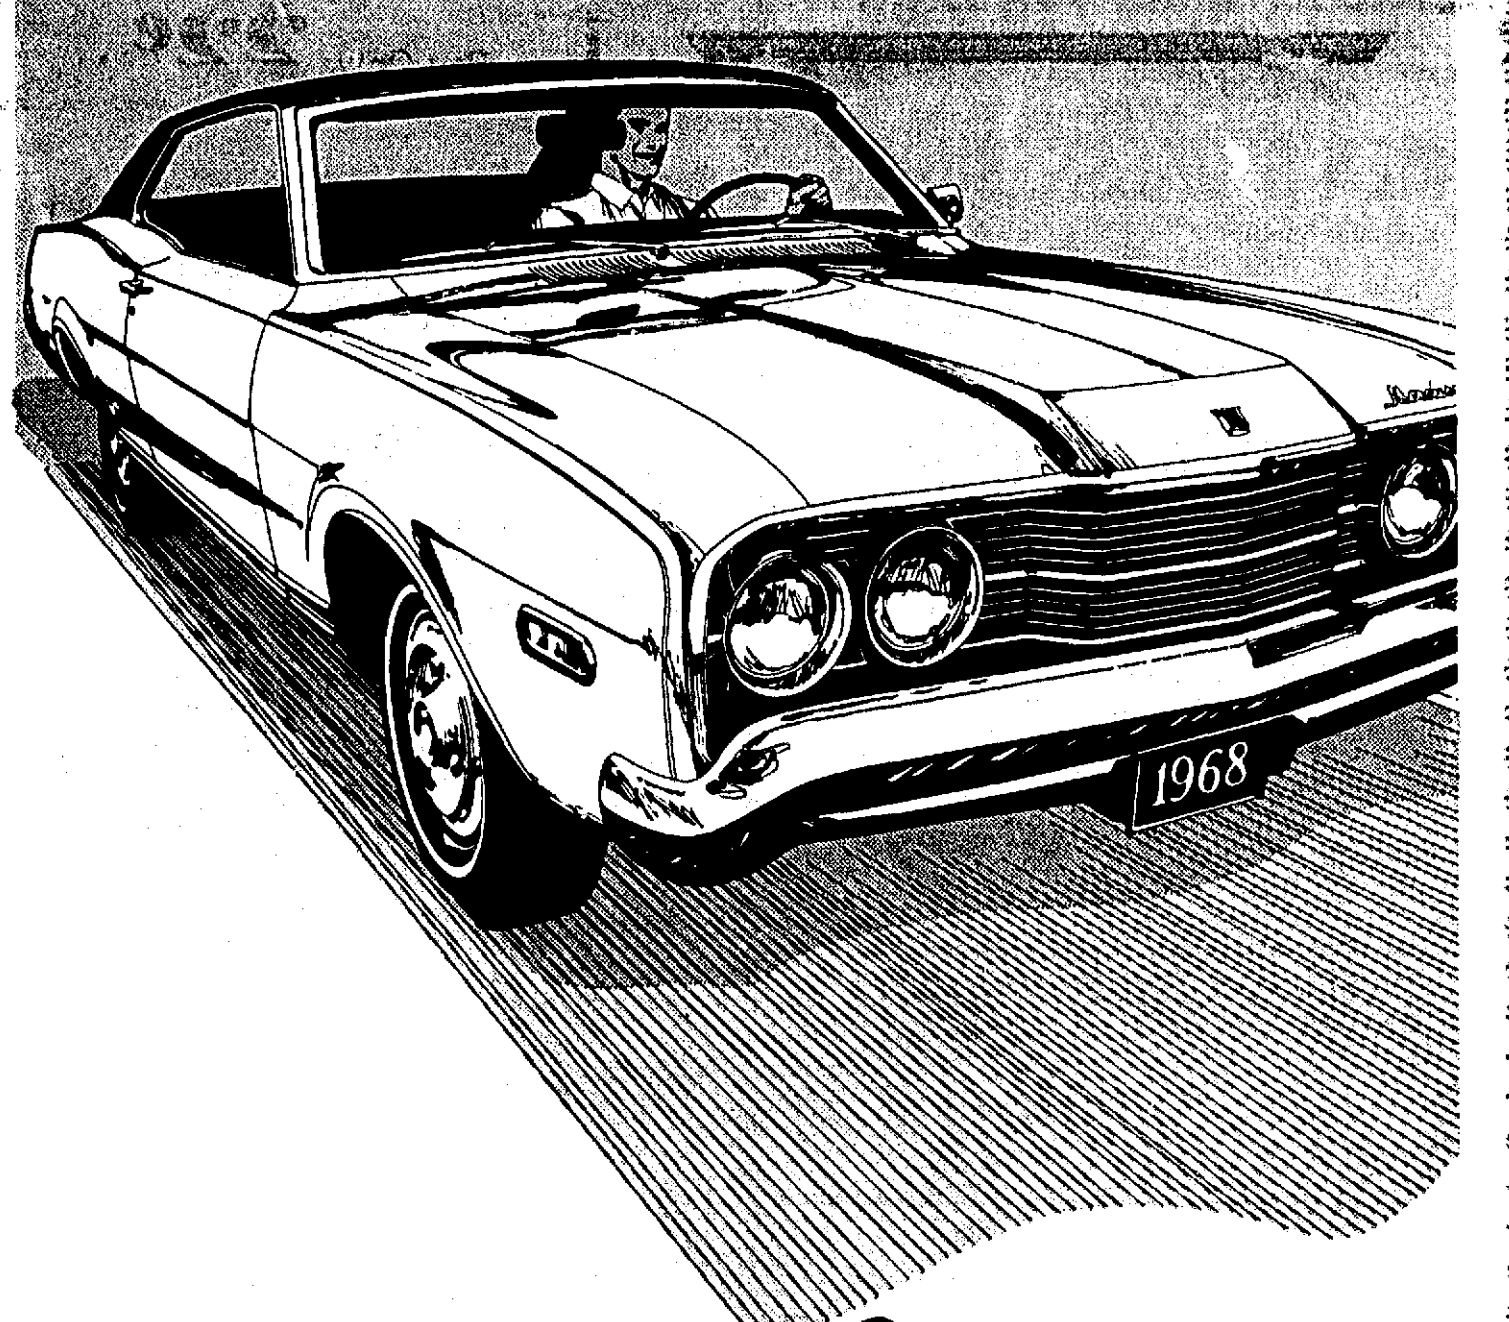

NEW YORK (AP) — The American and National Football Leagues continue their annual meetings behind closed doors Tuesday with little information leaking from the portals.

The NFL did announce its representatives would meet Wednesday afternoon with representatives from the Players' Association who are asking for such things as $15,000 minimum salary, $500 pay for exhibition games and an annual $5 million contribution to the player pension fund.

The problems of implementing the merger agreement between the two leagues by 1970 probably will be tackled by the appointment of committees to work on realignment and schedule. Commissioner Pete Rozelle will name the committees later in the week.

George Halas, the pioneer owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, said Monday he thought the ultimate result would be maintaining the structure of the present NFL and AFL as two divisions of the same league with interleague play. However, this is only one man's idea.

The clubs have been busy scheduling exhibition games, including several interleague contests.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Indian Ocean, covering 1/7th of the earth, is like most of the world's oceans, a source of mystery and a subject of belated exploration. The World Almanac notes that scientists studying this ocean found, for example, that off Sumatra the water undulates in 240-foot swells twice the size of the largest known surface waves. The cause of this phenomenon remains unknown.

Pipers Have the Muskies Reeling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Pittsburgh's surging Pipers, with Charlie Williams and Connie Hawkins supplying the punch, have the Minnesota Muskies reeling.

Hawkins broke a 110-110 dead-lock with 1:54 to go against Minnesota, hitting a basket and free throw Monday night, sending the Pipers to their fourth straight victory. The triumph increased their margin over the second-place Muskies, who dropped their second in a row, in the American Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

Williams' 35 points and 33 by Hawkins gave Pittsburgh its biggest margin of the season—2½ games—over Minnesota. Mel Daniels topped Minnesota with 35 points.

In other ABA action, Kentucky nipped Indiana 134-129 and Houston beat Oakland 118-111.

Darel Carrier poured in 43 points for Kentucky, edging the Colonels to within 2½ games of the Pacers in their battle for the final playoff spot in the Eastern Division. Jimmy Rayl had 30 points for Indiana.

With 1:14 left to play, Houston's Willie Somerset hit on a 20-foot jumper to put the Mavericks ahead 112-111 and 10 seconds later added two free throws to clinch the decision.

Somerset finished with 24 points. Art Becker topped Houston with 27 while Steve Jones had 30 points for the Oaks.

Fight Tickets All Sold Out

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
NEW YORK (AP) — All $10, $20 and $30 tickets, and most of the $50 tickets for the March 4 championship fight doubleheader have been sold out, Madison Square Garden said today. Some $50, $75 and $100 tickets remain.

The bouts match Emile Griffith and Nino Benvenuti for the welterweight championship and Joe Frazier and Buster Mathis for the New York version of the heavyweight title.

Clay Appeal Studied by U.S. Judge

HOUSTON (AP) — A three-judge federal court studied today former heavyweight champion Cassius Clay's appeal of a five-year prison sentence and whether the defense or the government would speculate when the court would rule.

The three judges heard 70 minutes of arguments Monday and then took under advisement Clay's appeal of the sentence he received for refusing to enter the Armed Forces.

The defense, headed by Charles Morgan Jr., an Atlanta attorney for the Civil Liberties Union, argued that Clay was sincere in a contention he should be exempt from military service because he is a conscientious objector.

U.S. Atty. Morton Susman replied Clay was a conscientious objector "only at his conven-

They Take Poultry Short Course

lence." Although neither side would speculate when a ruling would be handed down, Morton called it a "preferred case" and said it will be moved up.

Clay refused to be inducted into the Army last April 28 and was convicted June 20. He was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $10,000. He has been free on a $5,000 appeal bond.

Domestic groups have stripped him of his heavyweight title.

Clay was not required to be in court and he did not appear.

Morgan asked the court to rule Clay's constitutional rights had been violated by a systematic exclusion of Negroes from draft boards. He also called for a ruling that the Justice Department had erred in rejecting a recommendation Clay be classified as a conscientious objector because of being a Black Muslim minister.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Carl Walker Jr., a Negro, argued Clay had been treated fairly although he agreed with Morgan that there is room for improvement on the racial balance of governmental panels and agencies.

"I'd be the first to say it is desirable and that we are moving in that direction but Cassius Clay was treated fairly," Walker said.

Susman argued that Clay never did raise the ministry or conscientious objector questions until he had been classified 1-A on Feb. 17, 1966.

Declares War on Seagulls

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Maine (AP) — Oceanside Boothbay Harbor has declared war on seagulls polluting the town's water supply.

Two black huts similar to those used for fishing have been placed on ice-covered Adams Pond, where the town gets its water. A man inside moves the shanty toward a roosting flock of gulls and fires a shotgun through an opening. One blast and the flock flies off—and usually doesn't return until the

War Appraisal Called Wholly Irrational

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., said Monday the latest White House appraisal of the Vietnam situation is wholly irrational. Fulbright, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee chairman, commented to newsmen on administration statements the enemy had failed to achieve its objectives and the South Vietnamese government had been strengthened in the current North Vietnamese offensive.

Fulbright said "to me it seems wholly irrational, a fantastic analysis of what is happening."

He said he had heard no one outside of the administration make similar statements.

Fulbright commented at the conclusion of the first of a series of committee hearings on the nature of revolution.

Prof. Crane Brinton of Harvard University said under questioning by Fulbright he doubted the United States would have acted as it did in Vietnam if Ho Chi Minh, North Vietnam leader, were not a Communist. Brinton said a challenge for this country was to learn to "put up with a world that isn't of our own making."

"We shouldn't be sympathetic only to those revolutions we agree with," Fulbright commented.

Ford Grants to Negro Colleges

NEW YORK (AP) — Grants totaling more than $3 million for "strengthening of predominantly Negro colleges" were announced today by the Ford Foundation.

The three largest grants were $1,107,225 to Tuskegee Institute in Alabama and $857,770 to Hampton Institute in Virginia to assist the general development of the schools over the next 3½ years, and $297,500 to Texas Southern University at Houston to develop a new graduate curriculum for business training.

Some 50 colleges in all will be recipients of the new set of grants, which will boost the foundation's contributions to Negro higher education to more than $28 million since 1963.

Group Works to Embarrass Johnson

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Rebellious Democrats backing Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy for president are working to deal President Johnson an embarrassing political defeat on Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's home ground two weeks from today. Administration loyalists frankly admit they're worried.

"The doves can conceivably take Minneapolis," said Richard Moe, state finance director of the Democratic Farmer Labor party. "It will be fairly close either way."

The vice president, said a pro-Humphrey leader, is "definitely concerned, for he considers Minneapolis to be home base." Humphrey began his political career as mayor of this city. McCarthy calls neighboring St. Paul home.

The confrontation will come March 5 at party precinct caucuses—one week before McCarthy and the Johnson-Humphrey forces clash in the New Hampshire preferential primary.

In Minnesota, the precinct caucuses are the grass-roots starting point for selection of national convention delegates. From the precincts, delegates are sent to ward conventions, which choose delegates to the district and state conventions, which in turn name the national delegates.

Because precinct caucuses are open to anyone who voted Democratic in the last election, or promises to do so in the next, party officials fear the meetings will be packed with voters attracted by McCarthy's opposition to the Vietnam war.

Many of these are likely to be college-age voters and that further complicates the problem. One party official pointed out that Humphrey had been unable to devote much attention to the party since he became vice president.

"There are a lot of young people who have come into the party who don't even know Hubert Humphrey," he said.

National Committeewoman Geri Joseph predicted in an interview that McCarthy will get no more than 5 of the state's 62 delegates. John Wright, assistant professor of the University of Minnesota and vice chairman of the Minnesota Concerned Democrats, has predicted that "We can get 32 votes for Gene McCarthy for president!" — In other words, a majority of the delegation. Other observers think McCarthy could wind up with as many as 8 to 10.

Despite the stakes, both sides appear to be trying to campaign on what was described as a "gentlemanly level." They want to avoid a rousing clash like the battle two years ago over picking the party's gubernatorial nominee. That intraparty feud is blamed for the Republicans capturing the state house in 1966.

But Mrs. Joseph said the McCarthy-Humphrey contest can't help but get rougher.

"A fight like this always gets nastier and nastier," she said.

The DFL's ruling body, the State Central Committee, has given a strong endorsement to Johnson and Humphrey, but a separate Johnson-Humphrey campaign organization has been set up under the direction of State Sen. Wendell R. Anderson.

Anderson says the reason for the soft campaign is this: "When Sen. McCarthy runs for re-election in 1970 we will support him. We feel in November he will support the Johnson-Humphrey ticket. We want to conduct ourselves so this will happen."

As evidence of some of the tension, however, Rep. Donald Fraser, Democratic congressman from Minneapolis, said he had turned down an invitation from Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., to serve on the state Johnson-Humphrey committee.

Fraser said he wasn't endorsing McCarthy, and he still supported the administration because of its domestic policies, but added:

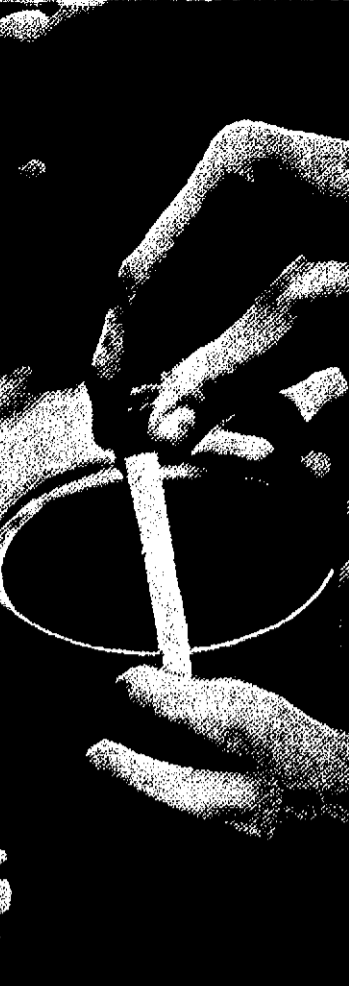

"I felt as long as I've been such an outspoken critic of the administration's position on Vietnam war policies, it wouldn't appear proper to serve in a leadership role in Minnesota."

Head Matron Will Care for Prison Baby

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Prison Supt. Thomas O. Murton said Monday that the head matron of the Women's Reformatory at Cummins Prison Farm and her husband would be temporary foster parents of the infant son of a woman convict.

Murton said that the head matron, Mrs. Beatrice Crawford, had agreed to care for the child until the state Welfare Department approves a foster home or similar arrangements are made.

The child was born about two months ago and allowed to stay with its mother temporarily. Murton said it had never been planned for the infant to remain at the prison.

MARIJUANA is smoked by about 65 per cent of personnel stationed at Udorn Air Base, Thailand, according to an air policeman's estimate. Above, after carefully emptying the tobacco from an American filtered cigarette, the paper is refilled with marijuana. Fifty cents worth of the illegal drug will fill nearly 20 such cigarettes. U.S. airman, left, smokes marijuana through a water-filled Asian pipe. His eyes have been blacked out to conceal his identity.

Oklahoman Claims Rights Violated

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Ralph Dial, 40, of Oklahoma City, who has been charged with obtaining $30,000 by false pretense, filed a civil rights suit in federal District Court Monday after being bound over to Circuit Court.

Dial said in his suit that his civil rights had been violated during his arrest and detention Dec. 6.

Municipal Judge Lawson Clinger ruled earlier in the day that the Municipal Court did have jurisdiction in Dial's case. Dial says he was kidnapped in Oklahoma Dec. 6 and forced to come to Arkansas to face the false pretense charge.

Dial asked in his suit filed Monday that a writ of habeas corpus be issued and that the false pretense charges against him be quashed. He named Clinger, Prosecutor Wayland Parker and Sebastian County Sheriff Fred B. Hayes as respondents in the suit. Hayes has been ordered to appear before the federal court March 6 to answer Dial's allegations.

Parker had charged Dial with unlawfully obtaining $30,000 from Sam Sexton Jr., and J. A. Hannah, both of Fort Smith, and Dr. Roy Mason of Oklahoma City.

Clinger conducted a hearing Jan. 23 on Dial's motion concerning Municipal Court jurisdiction and a preliminary hearing on the evidence relating to the false pretense charge.

Sexton testified at the hearing that he, Hannah, Mason and Joe McCutchen of Fort Smith gave Dial money in November 1965, in connection with a contract with Dial for mining and exporting tantalite ore in Brazil.

Dial misrepresented the mining venture according to Sexton.

Spa Couple Is Robbed of $4,000

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A prominent Hot Springs couple was trussed up and robbed of more than $4,000 and a valuable diamond ring Monday night by two gunmen who just "walked" into their home in a fashionable neighborhood.

Police Chief John Erney said the robbery victims were Harry Leopoldos and his wife Glinna. Leopoldos is manager and part owner of a Hot Springs motel.

The gunmen, who were not masked, took $4,000 in $100 bills and several rings, including two wedding bands and a six-carat diamond. Erney said the couple was bound with electrical cord cut from jumps by the two men who drove into the driveway and walked through the back door of the home into a den.

One of the men "accidentally" fired a shot into a wall near where the couple was bound, the chief said.

Lawyers Would Restrict Flow of News

By BARRY SCHWEIM
Associated Press Writer
CHICAGO (AP)—The American Bar Association has endorsed recommendations that judges, lawyers and policemen restrict the flow of information about criminal cases.

But news officials, turned down in their plea for a year's delay for study, predicted new battles in the courts and state legislatures.

Said one, J. Edward Murray of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, "The press will have no recourse but to fight back."

The recommendations, put forward by a press-trial advisory committee headed by Justice Paul C. Reardon of Massachusetts' Supreme Judicial Court, were adopted by a voice vote Monday by the ABA's policy-setting House of Delegates.

Minutes before, the delegates turned down by a 176-68 vote an appeal by three top news executives that action be put off while studies are made of the effects on jurors of newspaper, radio and television accounts of crime.

"There is no good reason for delay," Reardon said during the two-hour debate. And J. Edward Murray of the U.S. Circuit Court in New York City said the news media would only return in a year with talk of new studies.

"What are the surveys going to show?" he asked. "Are they going to tell us that human nature has changed?"

Once the guidelines are incorporated into the ABA's ethics code, lawyers could run the risk of severe discipline—even disbarment—for making public during a trial opinions and information that were not part of the record.

Police departments, meanwhile, were advised to adopt regulations chocking off from time of arrest information about prior criminal records, confessions or admissions of guilt and the result of such tests as fingerprinting and lie detection.

And judges were instructed not to make "any statements" that might interfere with a "fair trial."

Judges also were advised to use their contempt power against anyone, including reporters and editors, who "willfully" try to affect a verdict by disseminating statements about the defendant or the issues.

The stated objective of these limitations is to shield defendants from prejudiced jurors. ABA President Earl F. Morris told reporters the new ethics code probably will be ready for adoption by the House of Delegates next February.

He said the bar association looks to police departments, state courts, local bar groups—and possibly state legislatures—to implement the new guidelines.

Morris, a Columbus, Ohio, lawyer, appeared optimistic, but Murray, managing editor of the Arizona Republic, said in a statement: "Fortunately, neither the ABA or the House of Delegates makes the law."

He declared: "Publishers and editors must be prepared to spend whatever is necessary in the way of reporters' time and litigation costs to guarantee that police chiefs do not manage the news to suit themselves, that prosecutors do not censor what the public has a right to know... and that judges don't try to suppress legitimate news..."

D. Tennant Bryan, one of the three news executives who urged delay, commented: "It seems to me that the House of Delegates attempted to amend the Constitution and I doubt they have the authority."

Fighting alongside the publisher of the Richmond (Va.) Times Dispatch and News Leader, were Theodore F. Koop, a CBS vice president, and Michael J. Orden.

El Dorado to Buy Vote Machines

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—Robert C. Mason, chairman of the Union County Election Commission, said Monday that the commission would proceed with its plans to buy 60 voting machines.

Mason made the statement shortly after Chancery Judge James Rowan ruled that the commission had not violated either the freedom of information act or the county purchasing act by deciding to buy the machines.

The commission reached the decision last June and a taxpayers suit was filed the following month. Rowan issued a temporary injunction prohibiting the commission from signing the contract for the machines until the suit was settled.

Rowan said no one had asked to be notified of the commission's meeting and that the only two companies that could submit bids were notified so there was no violation of either act.

The commission decided last June to purchase the machines from the Shoup Voting Machine Co. at a cost of $120,363.

Alabama will have 26 lettermen back for its 1968 football team.

13th Process Color Production Coming Up for The Star

On Jan. 28, 1967, Hope Star reproduced a process color photograph—"Hog Killing Time in Arkansas"—one of the relatively few American newspapers handling four-color printing.

In all of 1967 we ran 12 full-color productions, climaxed Nov. 24 by a double feature, the Buffalo River on the front page and a layout of six pictures on the back page featuring last October's War Eagle Handcraft Fair—the first time that two full-color pages were published in one edition by any Arkansas newspaper.

We are now readying our 13th Color Show production, expecting to make publication this week or next. The subject is six Kodachrome 35mm. shots of the jumping porpoises at Marineland, Fla., made by the editor about 10 years ago. The pictures will appear in a six-column layout.

Some of The Star's color work has been excellent, and, like all experimental work, there have been some disappointments. In process color printing there is an enormous gap between the original photograph and the published reproduction. Naturally you pick only the very best photographs for a process as tedious and costly as process color printing—but between the original and the published result you may be ambushed by a hundred technical problems.

I will say that our readers agree The Star's color work is superior to what you see in the metropolitan papers coming out of Memphis and Dallas. But there is an explanation: With an 8-page daily we have a tremendous advantage. We can afford to throw away 8-page papers until we arrive at a good print—but the cost would be astronomical in the case of metropolitan papers running 36 or 48 pages. So they release editions to their subscribers "as is"—good, bad, or indifferent.

But every newspaper has trouble with process color. We had trouble with our last two productions—"Autumn in Arkansas" Oct. 18, and the two-page "Buffalo-War Eagle" feature Nov. 24. Our color inks behaved strangely on the press, refusing to separate properly.

We called in William E. Macurda of Tulsa and Dallas, Eastman Kodak Co.'s color "troubleshooter." Bill reported that our separation negatives from the Berkeley color separator were perfect. This planned the trouble on the press.

It had to be one of two things: Either we needed to install humidity controls in the pressroom, or something was wrong with our process color inks. Since we hadn't needed humidity controls for good production in the past it seemed reasonable to suspect the inks. And there was our trouble, we now believe—once you open a tin of process color ink it begins to deteriorate. The change is scarcely noticeable at first—until, all of a sudden, its potential is gone.

Therefore we are starting our new run, this week or next, with a brand new shipment of color inks.

We in the United States like to think we lead the world in all techniques. But the fact is I have just seen two daily papers from Mexico featuring process color printing that is superior to anything among U. S. dailies. They are the Mexico City Herald and the Mexico City El Sol, both being all-day papers printed by offset.

Both run process color every edition. Both use U. S.-built presses and other equipment—but the operators are expert Mexican craftsmen.

Mexico City's El Sol is one of a commonly-owned group of papers. The group's production manager is Ruben Dias de la Garza of El Sol de Tampico at Tampico, Mexico. He must be an authentic genius.

I got this information from Clifford Morse of Dallas, Southwest manager of Hydrometals, Inc., one of our suppliers of plates for the press. Mr. Morse knows the man, having visited him in Tampico.

Fire Destroys the Hope Country Club

—Hope Star photo

Country Club Fire Loss $125,000

Hope Country Club, just completed a year ago, burned to the ground yesterday afternoon at a loss of around $125,000 for the building and fixtures alone.

There is no way to estimate the losses of individuals who kept their golfing and personal equipment in lockers at the club but it will run into thousands of dollars.

Cause of the fire could not be determined. Hope Fire Department sent a tanker truck and firemen said the building was completely engulfed when they arrived. The Department sent a second tanker to the scene, some two miles south of Hope on the Palmos road. All firemen could do was keep the blaze from spreading.

The building and everything in it was a total loss. It was partially covered by insurance. Also yesterday afternoon firemen were called to Kroger Store on Second where a motor had gotten too hot. There was no damage.

Johnson Rejects the Advice of Officials in LSD Penalties

By JACK MILLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration sources say that in seeking penalties for possession of the hallucinogenic drug LSD, President Johnson rejected the advice of his top drug official.

The sources also said Monday the administration blocked an appearance by Dr. James L. Goddard, food and drug administrator, before a scheduled congressional hearing into bills relating to control of LSD and other drugs.

They said it was felt Goddard shouldn't testify because his differences with Johnson would be exposed.

"It's an awkward position, but there hasn't been any muzzling," said Theodore C. Kron, assistant FDA commissioner. "The commissioner isn't the kind of guy you can muzzle any way."

Goddard was to have been the lead-off witness at Monday's scheduled hearings by the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee. The hearing was postponed and no new date was set.

The subcommittee chairman, Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., was reported angered by what sources said was a decision by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare not to have Goddard appear.

HEW officials said their decision was in line with the known wishes of President Johnson. Goddard has testified before

McNamara to Defend U.S. Action in Gulf of Tonkin Incident

By ROBERT GRAY

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Quiz-

zing of Secretary of Defense

Robert S. McNamara opens a

Senate inquiry into the 1964 Gulf

of Tonkin incident, which generated a major step-up in U.S.

military involvement in Vietnam.

McNamara is to appear today

before a closed session of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The committee staff reportedly has uncovered evidence that conflicts with official reports of the Tonkin incident.

The Senate Appropriations

Committee planned meanwhile

to discuss North Korea's seizure

of the intelligence-gathering

ship Pueblo. Central Intelligence Agency officials were to appear at the closed session today and some committee members said they would press for new details on the case.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-

Ark., of the Foreign Relations

Committee labeled as irrational

Monday the Johnson administration's contention that the South Vietnamese government

is stronger as a result of the recent waves of Viet Cong attacks on the cities.

He referred to weekend statements by Walt W. Rostow, President Johnson's adviser for national security; and Lt. Gen. Lewis W. Walt, deputy Marine Corps commandant.

"To me it seems wholly irrational, a fantastic analysis of what is happening," Fulbright told newsmen.

Sen. James B. Pearson, R-Kan., complained of "optimistic statements in the face of so many contrary facts."

In other developments: —Michigan Gov. George Romney, a candidate for the Repu-

lican presidential nomination, said the United States apparently is approaching another cycle of escalation in Vietnam, which he called a futile, dangerous policy.

—Texas Gov. John B. Connally told newsmen in Atlanta, Ga., that the position of fellow Democrat Robert F. Kennedy on the war poses a "detrimental effect on the whole attitude of people in this country and an even more disastrous effect insofar as Ho Chi Minh and the Communist world are concerned."

Connally, a close friend of the President, said the New York senator's opposition to John-

Senators Say People Calling

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Sen. W. K. Ingram, 54, of West Memphis said Monday he had been asked to run for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor this year by "several people" and that he would announce his decision within 45 days. Ingram has served in the Senate since 1963.

May Ignore LBJ Rights Bill Appeal

By JOHN CHADWICK

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Democrats and conservative Republicans appear certain to ignore President Johnson's

last-minute appeal and defeat a bid to end debate on the administration's civil rights bill.

A two-thirds majority of those senators voting is required to put the Senate's debate-closing closure rule into effect. Under a closure petition filed by 29 senators last Friday, the vote is set for one hour after the start of today's session.

Although conceding their anti-

filibuster move appears

doomed, supporters of the legislation hoped for a close enough

vote to keep it alive.

Johnson, in a letter to the bill's floor manager, Sen. Philip

A. Hart, D-Mich., said, "The issue is whether we will continue to move toward equality as a fact, as well as an ideal, in America."

Earlier, however, Senate Republican Leader Everett M.

Dirksen called the "key man"

in the closure bid by his Democratic counterpart—served notice he would vote against choking off the debate, Democratic

Leader Mike Mansfield said

that without Dirksen's support,

the closure move had no chance of getting the necessary two-thirds majority.

Mansfield said that after the vote there was a good possibility a motion would be made to

table and thus kill a pending

open-housing amendment.

The amendment was offered to a bill that would make it a federal crime to interfere by force or violence with the exercise of such rights as voting

and going to school because of a person's race, color, religion or national origin.

The proposed ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of housing served to heighten the controversy over the measure

intended to protect Negroes and civil rights workers against racial violence.

Although it was felt tabling of the open-housing amendment

might increase chances of getting closure on the civil rights protection bill, Dirksen said he thought the Senate would refuse to cut off debate on any bill

now.

Officials Would Have Public Believe Cong Attacks Good Medicine

By BOB HORTON

AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Carried to their logical extreme,

administration claims that the

mass Communist offensive strengthened South Vietnam appear to indicate the allies would be better off if only the enemy attacked more.

Or that Sunday's assaults on

the Tan Son Nhut air base and other areas were good medicine.

Or, carried to absurdity, that

the South Vietnam army should attack its own cities and there-

by guarantee national unity.

Of course, presidential adviser

Walt W. Rostow didn't mean to imply any of these things but his latest assessment of the Viet

Cong raids on the cities illustrates how hard the administration is trying to put the best face possible on some difficult circumstances in the war zone.

Rostow, telling newsmen of the briefing he gave to former

President Dwight D. Eisenhower

in California, said of the recent attacks:

"We're in the middle of a battle that is unresolved but from their own documents they failed to achieve their objectives and may have left the South Vietnamese army and government institutions stronger than before the attacks."

Rostow said the enemy actions have driven the South

Vietnamese populace "closer to a sense of nationhood than ever before."

Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to Saigon, said much the same thing as Rostow in a television appearance Sunday.

Bunker said the South Vietnamese army gained confidence

in the Jan. 29 fighting.

"I think the people have gained confidence in them,"

Bunker declared. "There is an indication, I think, that the government has probably a wider

support today than it had before the Tet (lunar new year) offensive."

Officials in the Pentagon acknowledge that if the Tet attacks proved anything, it is that the Viet Cong still has the capability to launch damaging attacks on certain cities and installations at the time of their choosing.

These officials also say, however, the enemy loses in two ways in these operations:

—He makes a momentary impact which has propaganda

value but no lasting military worth.

—He exposes himself to severe casualties while at the same time sparing allied forces

the time and risk of seeking him

out in search-and-destroy operations.

This view, of course, carries

the implication that more severe fighting of the Tet magnitude would hasten an end to the war, and some military officials

indeed believe that.

This small two-bedroom house, designed by the Arkansas Agricultural Extension Service, provides adequate space for comfortable living.

It is of frame construction with masonry foundation walls. There are 864 square feet of living area and added space for carport, storage and utility room.

The two bedrooms allow enough space for the usual bedroom furniture. Generous closet space is another factor. The L-shape kitchen is located next to the carport, convenient for bringing in groceries and other supplies. Sliding glass doors in the dining area give excellent lighting to this section of the house, and a wide-range view for the homemaker to watch the children at play. The living room adjoins the kitchen and dining areas. Traffic from outside is routed to one end of the kitchen and living room.

A gentle roof slope ends in a four-foot overhang along the front to offer shelter from bad weather and protection from summer sun. The front door is slightly recessed to increase this protection and to add an interesting appearance.

Detailed working drawings of this plan, Plan No. 647507, may be obtained from the Hempstead County Agricultural Extension Service.

He Might Not Fit in Today

By Robert Stearns

George Washington, born 236 years ago, was of such good character it fostered a legend to the effect he never told a lie.

Debunkers assure us the story of the cherry tree is more fable than fact, but, nevertheless, it is hard to believe a like tale about any contemporary public figure could survive generations of retelling.

Of course, this is not upsetting to many people because simple honesty has gone out of fashion. Today's man is not considered dishonest, merely expedient, and the sin is not in the act of commission, but rather in the fact that he gets caught.

And even this can be carried off if he is charming and witty and glib in the modern idiom.

Poor George, we're afraid, might not fit in today.

For example, can you imagine Washington saying he didn't want to get involved? Can you hear it? A group of revolutionaries come to Washington, the Virginia aristocrat—Washington, the landowner, the gentleman farmer.

"Help us," they say, "help us to build a nation dedicated to a new concept of freedom. Lead our inexperienced army against the might of England."

And George, if he were a modern man, might look out on his acres of rolling countryside; his stables of blooded stock; and say with great sincerity, "I'd rather not get involved."

Washington could not utter

Printed by Offset

those words because of his inherent honesty; because he realized that involvement was the only way he could maintain his integrity. And integrity to one's self is the foundation of honesty with one's neighbors.

Shakespeare said it: "This above all: to thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

Washington said it in his Farewell Address: "I hold the maxim no less applicable to public than to private affairs, that honesty is always the best policy."

Involvement to Washington meant many personal sacrifices. As a rich man, he could have lived in ease and high comfort. Instead, he chose to suffer countless hardships. Betrayed, abused, he was the object of jealousy and violent criticism.

Thomas Paine, an eminent American patriot, turned against our first president and called him "treacherous in private friendship and a hypocrite in public life." Washington was stung by scathing attacks in the press of the day and complained to Thomas Jefferson of "such exaggerated and indecent terms as could scarcely be applied to a Nero, a notorious defaulter, or even a common pickpocket."

Washington did not believe in patriotism with a purpose. To him, patriotism was a purpose and no sacrifice was too great as a means to its fulfillment.

Our forefathers were fortunate, indeed, to have a leader of Washington's stature in their time of trial. But we are lucky, too, if only we remember to look back from time to time and use the shining example to light the forward path.

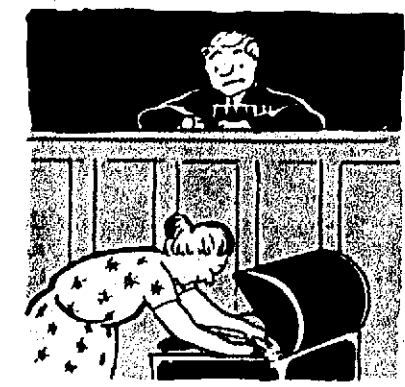

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"Before Your Very Eyes"

Suing a soap company for damages, a housewife charged that a certain shampoo had caused her hair to fall out. During the trial, the company offered to have a model use the shampoo in front of the jury—to demonstrate, "before your very eyes," that her hair would not fall out.

But the court rejected this experiment. The judge pointed out that, since the housewife's hair allegedly fell out over a period of months, it wouldn't help to see whether the model's hair would fall out in a period of minutes.

Experiments in the courtroom can be mighty persuasive. But, precisely for that reason, the law is concerned to keep them within fair limits. An experiment won't be allowed if it is not similar enough to the original situation to justify comparison.

The shampoo case illustrates the point. And in another case, a court held that the reaction of a drug on an ailing old woman could not be shown by demonstrating its reaction on a healthy young man.

On the other hand, the experiment need not be identical in every detail. For example:

A woman shopper, who had slipped on the floor of a market, wanted to demonstrate for the jury the slipperiness of a cleanser that had been used on the floor. The market protested that her test sample came from a different batch of cleanser.

But the court decided the experiment should be allowed. The judge said that, since it was the same product, from the same manufacturer, there was enough similarity to justify making the test.

Of course there is always the risk that an experiment, even though permitted, may boomerang and prove the wrong thing.

In one case a woman sued a railroad for losing her trunk. She sought payment not only for the trunk itself but also for a great many articles of clothing which, she claimed, had been in it.

On the day of the trial, the railroad's lawyer brought into court a trunk of exactly the same size—and a duplicate of each and every item the woman had listed.

"Now, madam," he said with a bow, "kindly show the jury how you were able to get all these things into your trunk."

With perfect aplomb the woman proceeded to fold, tuck and fit the items so neatly that she not only got everything in but had plenty of room left over. Result: she collected in full.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Diastolic More Important Blood Pressure Reading

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—My sister, 63, has a blood pressure of 150/90. Her doctor said that was very good. I thought it should be half your age plus 100. What do you think?

A—Although half your age plus 100 is a good average blood pressure for adults there is a wide range of normal readings. The lower level should not exceed 100 and preferably should be under 90. The upper level is much less stable. It increases with excitement of any kind and in some persons the apprehension associated with having the blood pressure taken causes it to shoot upward. When calm is restored it falls again. That is why your doctor may have you lie down and take a second reading after you have rested for 15 or 20 minutes.

Q—Which blood pressure reading is more important—the systolic or the diastolic?

A—The lower (diastolic) because that is the one that determines whether or not you have an abnormally elevated blood pressure.

Q—I have been told that I have hypertension which has caused secondary anemia. What does that mean and what treatment is best?

A—If hypertension is high blood pressure. Secondary anemia is anemia from a known cause. The correction of the hypertension would therefore be expected to cure your anemia.

Q—What kind of diet do you advise for high blood pressure? What causes high blood pressure?

A—The chief dietary restriction is on the use of salt. An adult should get about one gram of salt a day but many eat about 10 times this amount. Since overweight is commonly associated with a high blood pressure a person with this condition should keep his weight within the normal range.

A wide variety of drugs is used to reduce the blood pressure. It includes water pills (diuretics) to rid the body of both salt and water, hormones to reduce the excess of adrenal secretions found in many persons with high blood pressure, drugs to dilate the arteries and tranquilizers for persons whose increased blood pressure is due in part to nervous tension. Every victim must be treated with the drugs best suited to his Individual needs.

High blood pressure has several causes. These include hardening of the arteries, diseases of the glands of internal secretion, kidney disease and nervous tension. In a large percentage of victims no cause can be discovered. This is essential hypertension.

If you are like everyone else we know, you are trying your best to lose weight and yet have something good to eat. Some friends of ours have made progress, I haven't.

But while we are on the subject of slimming down, we have another suggestion. A Marja long-leg panty girdle will take you in a good two inches and maybe more. Day in and day out we actually see this done. A customer will try on a dress that is a bit close, especially a knit, we get out the Marja girdle and what a difference. It is almost unbelievable.

Sometimes she gets so carried away with the girdle, she does not buy the dress... says she will try it with some of her old ones at home first. This is a blow, but she usually comes back.

The Marja girdles come in several styles. One is made of Lycra with satin panels down the side to take care of the hip problem. Others are all Lycra mesh with a reinforced mid-section that really flattens the middle. Removable supporters, dries over-night and gives you that "feel" of slowness. You can't beat it and to think the price is only $9.00 - $11.00 or $13.00. Get your Marja today! Ask to see Marja Bra's too. And while you are here take a look at the new Springdresses, it will do your soul and body good... we will be looking for you at

of the time but he will lose a great deal of partnership satisfaction.

As an example it didn't cost North anything at all to rebid his five card diamond suit. At least it didn't cost him anything this time. The reason was that South simply rebid to three no-trump, and North was smart enough to pass.

Playing at three no-trump South won the heart lead with his nine and led a spade to dummy's queen. East took his ace and led back a heart whereupon South made five diamonds and two tricks in each other suit.

If South had bid four diamonds instead of three no-trump, North would have gone on to five diamonds. He might have made that contract, although good defense would hold him to 10 tricks, but in any event he would have been struggling as declarer instead of relaxing as dummy.

Why did we say that it didn't cost him anything this time? The reason is that when you open with one club or one diamond and your partner responds two no-trump you should simply bid three no-trump unless your hand is so unbalanced that you think a suit contract is better or unless you want to invite a slam.

North certainly didn't want to invite a slam. He had 13 high card points of his own and his partner's two no-trump call had shown 13-15 so that the opposition was marked with at least 12 high card points.

North didn't have a singleton and his partner's two no-trump bid had indicated a really balanced hand. Although it didn't hurt this time, suppose North really is interested in a slam some other time?

South will remember this hand and make no effort to get there.

Told About New Plant

—Frank King photo with Star camera
GLEN SERMON

Hope Lions, meeting Monday at Town & Country, heard a progress report of the Neocosa-Edwards Paper Company's new plant being constructed at Ashdown.

W. H. Gunter presented Glen Sermon, pulpwood procurement official for the firm who discussed the magnitude of keeping a paper mill of this size supplied with raw material.

He said that estimated needs of the mill would amount to about 183,000 cords of pine pulpwood and 78,000 cords of hardwood per year. This is not all the mill would use. Altogether he estimated 36,000 cords of roundwood weekly and 400 cords of chips weekly.

Mr. Sermon is primarily interested in procuring roundwood that could be hauled on truck within a 40 mile radius of Ashdown. Preliminary estimates are that 600 cords per week will be trucked to the mill; 450 cords weekly from around DeQueen and 300 per week from the Hope area.

In addition to the truck haul there are plans to ship pulpwood from points on the Kansas City Southern Railway as far north as Mena and the eastern edge of Oklahoma.

Mr. Sermon said the mill construction is on schedule, about 75 to 80 per cent complete and that they plan to stockpile pulpwood as early as May 1.

Counting timber, gasoline and related items this means about $15 to $20 per cord extra business for these areas. The company plans to counsel with and encourage tree farmers to put their land to the best use and to recommend which trees to save for saw logs, utility poles and which to sell for pulpwood.

Plans were completed for some 50 Lions and their wives to go by charter bus to Little Rock next Monday to attend a special program at the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind Center. This program is sponsored nationwide by the Lions. Four new members and three former Lions will be inducted into the club next week.

John Shaw and Claude Dupont, engineers with the Arkansas Highway Department were guest of Lion Bob Kellam.

U.S. Luring More Foreign Travelers

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will attempt to lure more foreign tourists to the United States through cut-rate prices on travel and attractions including free admission to national parks.

A White House task force, in a report emphasizing tourist promotion and cost cutting, said Monday it has enlisted cooperation from the travel industry in seeking lower rates for foreign visitors in hotels and motels and in traveling around the country by air, train, bus and car.

A 25 per cent discount on round-trip air tickets purchased in Europe for the United States — along with a 50 per cent discount on domestic air travel by foreigners — also were recommended by the Industry-Government Special Task Force on Travel.

The proposals are part of the Johnson administration's program to slice the international dollar drain this year by $3 billion.

American travelers spent about $2 billion more in other countries last year than foreigners spent in the United States. The administration program envisions a cut of $500 million in this aspect of the balance of payments.

Robert M. McKinney, publisher of the Santa Fe New Mexican and task force chairman, said the program recommended by his group could cut the balance-of-payments deficit by about $150 million.

The remaining cut in the travel sector would come from the travel tax proposed on Americans going to destinations outside the Western Hemisphere. The task force also recommended an increased budget for the U.S. Travel Service to promote tourism overseas, creation of a national tourist office to coordinate promotion efforts and a faster and simpler system of visa and customs regulations.

It would be up to Congress to carry out this part of the report which calls for a U.S. waiver of the visa requirement on a reciprocal basis with other countries. Here is the package of discount rates the task force proposes offering foreigners for travel and accommodations inside the United States:

1. A 50 per cent cut in airline fares, effective April 28, for residents of countries outside the Western Hemisphere. The person must visit at least three other cities apart from his arrival and departure city and spend two weeks in this country.

2. A 25 per cent discount on rail fares effective April 29.

3. A 10 per cent discount on charter bus rates for trips of 400 miles daily, effective May 1.

4. A 10 per cent discount by the three largest car rental companies, effective immediately.

5. Up to 40 per cent discount in rates by seven major hotel-motel chains effective immediately.

The discounts on air, rail and bus tickets are subject to approval by either the Civil Aeronautics Board or the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Each foreigner would be issued a hospitality card to show he is eligible for the discounts and for free admission on subways and local bus lines and to such government operated attractions as parks, beaches and camp grounds.

Says Court Ruling Not Very Clear

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller expressed mixed feelings Monday about the state Supreme Court's opinion that former State Police Director Lynn A. Davis was not guilty of contempt charges for failing to reveal the identity of a confidential informant.

Rockefeller said he was pleased the court had ruled in Davis' favor but indicated he had hoped the opinion would set guidelines concerning the protection of informants.

"It did not, I feel, fully clarify the problem that confronts law enforcement people or you members of the press," he said. He said the court's decision took the "wind out of the sails" of those who wanted to use Davis' contempt of court citation against him.

"They can't make a production out of this," he said. "I am glad for Lynn Davis that he was not found guilty."

Rockefeller said any of the three bills pending in the legislature concerning the qualifications of State Police director would make Davis eligible for reappointment if the emergency clause was enacted. Rockefeller said his administration could not live with the House-approved bill requiring the director be a qualified elector.

The governor also said there was quite a bit of difference between the rapidity of the Lincoln County Grand Jury's investigation into the discovery of three human skeletons at Cummins Prison Farm Jan. 28 and the relative lack of action on charges filed against former Asst. Prison Supt. Jim Bruton.

Rockefeller said it had been almost 15 months since Bruton, who goes on trial next month in Pine Bluff, had been charged with administering excessive punishment to inmates at Tucker Prison Farm.

BEAVERS BUSY

AURORA, Ill. (AP) — Beavers along Fox River are chewing tree trunks and felling trees like woodsmen, but no woodsmen can discover where the beavers are taking the tree branches.

Virgil L. Gilman, director of parks and recreation for the Fox River Park District, said more than 25 trees were felled by beavers in one three-week period.

Ash trees more than a foot in diameter were cut down by the animals. They leave the tree trunks after stripping off the branches.

TV NOTEBOOK

By JOAN CROSBY
NEA Entertainment Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Producer Chet Hagan, sitting in his aerie at NBC, was pouring.

But what he was pouring was definitely not being poured in aerie, bars or homes around town. He was letting people sample Puma, an egg-nog-flavored soft drink made from soy beans which Monsanto is producing and marketing in Latin America. It's a low-cost, all-protein drink which supplies most of the body's protein requirements and it is an effort to make people in underprivileged areas get the essential nutrients. Where the underprivileged, and consequently hungry, often reject and resist America's efforts to teach them know-how, there is one thing they can't resist and that is an American soft drink.

Hagan had the bottle of Puma in his office because it was a prop on a forthcoming television show, set for NBC-TV on Feb. 23, Tomorrow's World: Feeding the Billions.

Puma is an adaptation of something called Vitasoy, which is popular in Hong Kong. Recognizing the possibility not so much for making money but for helping the world's hungry, Coca-Cola has developed chocolate-flavored Sachi (pronounced "saucy") and it is being tested in Brazil.

Hagan, who was concerned but not overly knowledgeable on the subject of the world's hungry, is now expert.

"Between now and the year 2000," he said, "the population of the world will double. Right now, two-thirds of the world's people are poorly fed or malnourished. Millions are hungry from the day they are born until they die. If we can't feed them today, how will we manage in 33 years when the population has doubled?"

Like everything else in the world, it takes money to feed the hungry. But those connected with government agencies say it is difficult to get the money because it is constantly earmarked for other things (some of which seem much less important than hungry people). The public is also apathetic to the needs of agencies like A.I.D.

India is always a prime example, both of a country's reluctance to accept what Hagan calls "the technological know-how of the smart-aleck Americans," and its urgent need to feed its teeming population.

In Visakhapatnam, India, two American companies have financed a massive plant that produces enough chemical fertilizer to grow food to feed 10 million people annually. The one plant cost over $80 million. Right now India needs 15 more of these plants!

Hagan's show examines the sensible things that can be done to solve food shortages: better use of the land and the possibility of making the deserts fertile and clearing the jungle, the great food potential of the sea and "aquaculture" or fish farming and the value of protein.

One thing that will have to go, Hagan feels, is a taboo against a certain food. For either religious or superstitious reasons, fish, eggs, bananas, beef, pork and milk are rejected by some peoples.

With experimentation, hay, chicken feathers and algae (which grows on sewage) have been found to have high protein content, and possible use as foodstuffs.

Chicken feathers could drive anyone bananas.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Barring unforeseen difficulties, the Carol Channing special will appear on the ABC network on leap year day, Feb. 29.

Miss Channing will believe it when she actually sees her own face beaming on the tube. Her show, "Carol Channing and 101 Men," has been to the starting gate before.

The special was in preparation last summer, and Miss Channing underwent six weeks

HOW ARE YOU 'GONNA KEEP HER DOWN ON THE CAMPUS after she's seen London? A touch of such sights as Buckingham Palace, No. 10 Downing Street, the Tower of London and the new Post Office Tower with the revolving restaurant has proved to be much more exciting than the Ohio State University campus, especially if you're a 19-year-old Cathy Lynn Gravitt of Cincinnati. Cathy, a member of a department store's college board, won first prize in a perfume contest. Her reward was a whirl of fun and sight-seeing in the British capital and not so much as a foggy day dampened her enthusiasm. Cathy of rehearsals with guest stars Walter Matthau, George Burns, Jimmy Dean and the Association. Also scheduled to appear for the Oct. 1 taping was the Air Force Academy Cadet Chorale. The Cadets flew down from Colorado Springs the day before.

Then it happened. The broadcasting union, NABET, went on strike against ABC. The taping remained on the schedule, since it was to be done in the color studios of NBC, which wasn't on strike. Miss Channing continues the story from there in her own breathless style:

"Oh, we had everything ready, all my makeup and wigs, and the Cadets had arrived, and four-star generals and everyone. So I went to NBC the day of the taping and to my utter surprise it was surrounded by pickets. Well! that wouldn't do at all.

"Then this lovely man who is the head of NBC here—what is his name? Oh, yes, Tom Sar-noff, A lovely man, and he's married to a girl who went to Bennington College, as I did. He came out of the building and asked me not to go on with the show. He said if I did, he feared there would be a strike against NBC, too.

"My goodness, it was a problem! I mean, we had all those Cadets here, and we had to feed them every two hours. Those boys just eat like crazy, and if they went without a meal for more than two hours, they became dispirited. Also, we had our guest stars to think of. If we had to postpone, Walter Matthau might be making a picture someplace far away.

"But heavens—we couldn't close down all of NBC for one little television show. I couldn't do that to such a nice man, especially since he was married to a Bennington girl."

The Cadets were sent back to the academy, and the show was cancelled. ABC managed to reschedule the taping for Oct. 15 after an agreement with NABET that the special would not be broadcast until after the strike was settled. Miss Channing managed to retain her entire cast except for Dean, who suggested Eddy Arnold as a substitute.

The special was scheduled to appear Nov. 16, and Carol appeared on the Joey Bishop Show to plug it. But the strike wasn't settled, and she went on with Joey again to announce that the show would air Nov. 30. But even though the strike ended Nov. 21, ABC didn't have enough time to promote the special, and it was postponed until Feb. 29.

He Stopped Wrong Car

CHICAGO (AP) — Detective John Manley was driving an unmarked police car Sunday when an auto with flashing red lights and blaring siren pulled up behind him and signaled him to the curb.

Manley said the driver of the car, Edward J. Cooper of Chicago, got out and approached him flashing a gold Tennessee sheriff's badge.

"He told me he was a police officer," Manley said. "So I told him 'that's a coincidence, so am I.'"

Cooper, 35, was charged with impersonating an officer, simulating the legal process, driving a vehicle equipped with a siren and driving without Illinois license plates or a city sticker. He was released on $1,000 bond.

FINAL ONE-TENTH
WINSTON-SALEM, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Odessa Hart Brown, who died during her lifetime, also died in death. She left a tenth of her estate, valued at a total of $115,728, to the First Baptist Church here. It will get more than $22,000.
